

CRIME STOPPERS of Southern Oregon

December 26, 2018

The Ashland Police Department is asking for your help in the case of the murder of David Grubbs.

On the evening of November 19, 2011, 23-year-old David Grubbs, had just finished his shift at the Shop 'n Kart. While walking home along the bike path on the Bear Creek Greenway near Hunter Park he was confronted by an unknown assailant, who attacked him with what's being called a "large, edged object," nearly decapitating him.

The Ashland Police Department has worked tirelessly to unravel this mystery, and bring some closure to Grubbs' family. A reward of up to $22,000 has been offered for any information that leads to an arrest and conviction.

The APD asks that anyone with any information about the murder of David Grubbs, call or text Crime Stoppers of Southern Oregon at: 1-800-850-0580. Refer to case number: KMED-122518.

You can remain anonymous.
