

CRIME STOPPERS of Southern Oregon

January 30, 2019

Oregon State Police are asking for your help in locating the person, or persons, responsible for a fire that claimed the life of 65-year-old Donald Thomas of Cave Junction.

The fire, which is now being called a arson/murder, happened in the early hours of Wednesday, January 16th, along East River Street and Redwood Highway. Investigators are looking for multiple suspects, and believe that the fire was started by a road flare that was thrown into the residence with the victim inside.

If you have any information, call or text Crime Stoppers of Southern Oregon at: 1-800-850-0580. Refer to Case number: KMED013019.

Crime Stoppers will pay a reward of up to $1,000 for any information leading to an arrest and filing of charges. The reward is sponsored by Rogue Credit Union. Callers may remain anonymous.